Cytomegalovirus (CMV) is a very common virus that can infect the liver, lungs, and other organs. It can also cause birth defects in pregnant women. The New York State Newborn Screening Program provides information on how to prevent CMV in pregnant women and newborns. To learn more, visit www.wadsworth.org/newborn.

Resources:
- New York State Newborn Screening Program: https://www.wadsworth.org/programs/newborn/screening/additional-testing
- Baby's First Test: https://www.babysfirsttest.org/newborn-screening/conditions/congenital-cytomegalovirus
- Mayo Clinic: https://www.mayoclinic.org/diseases-conditions/cmv/symptoms-causes/syc-20353358